

Go Shopping

Today, Billy and his mother go shopping in Happy Shopping Centre. In the shopping centre, Billy sees a toy car. It is a big red and green toy car. He is excited. It costs only fifty dollars. It is not expensive.

At the same time, Mum sees something in another shop. It is a clothes shop. She sees a pretty dress. It is red and pink. There is a bow on it, too. Mum feels happy and surprised. She wants to try it on. She gets in the shop.

After Billy finishes looking at the car, he wants to find his mum. Billy cannot see his mum. He feels afraid and worried. After that, he finds a policeman. He tells the policeman that he cannot find his mum. The policeman takes him to the information centre. Meanwhile, Billy's mother also comes to the information centre to look for Billy. Finally they find each other. They thank for the policeman and keep on shopping happily.

An unforgettable shopping day

Today, Alan and his mum go to a supermarket. He and his mum are shopping. Alan walks around happily while choosing the drinks.

After walking around, Alan wants to buy a bottle of cola. He finds bottles and bottles of cola on top of the shelves. He likes cola because it is sweet.

While Alan reaches for a bottle of cola, another bottle of cola drops on the floor. Alan breaks the bottles! Cola sprays out! Alan feels scared. The shopkeeper feels mad at Alan.

The shopkeeper yells, 'Go away!' Alan doesn't want to go, so he says, 'Sorry. Can I have a bottle of cola before I go? But the shopkeeper just says, 'Go!' Alan goes away with his mum sadly, but he learns to be careful from now on.
