An accident

One day, Daisy called me. She told me that she would go to Europe for two weeks. She asked to lend her a helping hand. She asked, 'I will go to Europe for two weeks with my parents. Can you help me take care of my pot plant? You just need to water it once every day.' I promised, 'No problem! It's easy, I can do it.' Then she came to my home to give the plant to me. After that, she went to the airport.

I put the pot plant in the balcony because there was enough sunlight for the plant. I also watered it every day. It was beautiful. When it rained, I put the pot plant into the house.

On the day before Daisy returned to Hong Kong, an accident occurred. When I was playing video games in the living room, a stray cat jumped into the balcony and bumped into the pot plant. The soil in the pot plant dropped on the ground. I was shocked and scared.

I tried to calm down. I decided to be honest to Daisy, so I called her immediately. I apologized to her and promised her that I would buy a new one to her. Daisy was so kind that she forgave me.

After this incident, I learnt that I should do my best if I promise someone to do something.

An accident

One day, Daisy called me. She told me that she would go to Europe for two weeks. She asked, 'Can you do me a favour? I need to go to Europe for two weeks. Can you help me take care of my pot plant?' I promised her and said, 'No problem.'

When she came to my home, she gave me the pot plant which was very beautiful. I put it in the balcony carefully. There was sunlight for the plant. I watered it at once. I also told Mum about the plant and asked her not to throw it away.

Five days later, I was having my Easter Holiday. I was playing video games at home and suddenly, a cat jumped into my balcony and bumped into the pot plant. The soil in it all fell down on the floor. I was so shocked and regretted that I did not take good care of the plant. I was scared when I called Daisy. 'I am sorry that I broke your pot plant. Can you forgive me?' I said. To my surprise, Daisy did not get angry with me. She said, 'It's okay. Don't worry! I can buy a new one.' At last, I bought Daisy a new pot plant. She was delighted.

After this incident, I have learnt that I should be very careful if I promise someone to do something.
